To Whom It May Concern,

I had the pleasure of working with Scotty Chiplin while filming Disney's MULAN in New Zealand. He was my assistant plus driver during the course of four months of prep and production.

He is a very kind, affable and fun gentleman. He took his job seriously and was very capable of handling a wide range of responsibilities, ranging from trivial personal tasks to important professional matters, such as arranging my daily schedule with ADs or taking care of my requests with the producer and the line producer. He is an excellent communicator, and everybody in the production office or on set all loved him. What I like the most is his work attitude. He is diligent and proactive. He always thinks ahead and is extremely organized. It was my first time to work in New Zealand. As a native Chinese actress, I greatly appreciated his culture sensitivity and thoughtfulness. Very often after a long day of work he prepared some chocolate, energy bar, nuts or even stuffed animals in the car to brighten my day. He started picking up Chinese words very fast. My team and I truly enjoyed his company. Plus, he is a fantastic driver. We could always fall asleep in the car during his safe and smooth ride home.

His vast knowledge of film and experiences of working as a past stuntman and various positions on different film and TV projects would make him a great addition to any production team. I highly recommend him for any position on a production.

Best regards,
